

Medical Information Manager

The Medical Information Manager (MIM) is responsible for providing a variety of external and internal customers with medical and scientific information on the appropriate utilization of Therabel products and with more general information about their therapeutic area.

Profile:

Scientific degree with prior experience in Pharma Industry (Min. 5 years)

Advanced training (residency or fellowship) in Medical Information is preferred.

Basic training in Regulatory Affairs is preferred.

Familiar with food supplements, medical device and medicines guidelines /directives and standards for medical information & publicity.

Includes the following activities among others:

- Exhibits comprehensive knowledge of the Medical Information and publicity work and processes as well as good understanding of other internal stakeholders.
- Serves as the subject matter expert for Medical Information on Therabel products.
- Ensures the appropriate and timely review and approval of any generated materials (Rx, OTC, Food Supplements, Medical Devices) in accordance with relevant SOPs and local laws/codes of practice
- Provide proactive scientific advice for Therabel products as part of marketing strategies.
- Actively participates and interacts with cross-functional team members to ensure sharing of insights and data
- Participates in product development in serving scientific advice on Therabel products.

In case of interest into this vacancy, please contact our HR department by sending your motivation and CV towards annick.dujardin@therabel.com